

NATALIA COOPER

Natalia Cooper is popular Channel Nine Presenter and has been a journalist for more than a decade. Born in Perth, she started in the Perth Nine newsroom, where she went on to work as the station's 6pm weather presenter and fill-in newsreader for five years.

Natalia studied Journalism at Curtin University, and in 2009 she joined Seven News Perth presenting the Afternoon News and 6pm weather while continuing to file news reports.

In 2012 Natalia relocated to Sydney and began working as a reporter for Sydney's National Nine News. She has covered bushfires, floods, the Sydney terror attack. She has also reported on visits from Prince Charles, Prince Harry and the Danish Royals.

Natalia quickly proved herself as a versatile correspondent for the Nine Network. She has gone on to regularly fill in and read the news and weather for both TODAY and Weekend TODAY which saw her land the permanent weather role on TODAY. If that isn't enough, Natalia has also hosted for popular Channel Nine Postcards.

In January 2019, Natalia welcomed her first child Ezra to the world with husband Carl, she will return to Channel Nine after her maternity leave.
