SFMGMT

Australia's leading talent network.

For over 20 years, SF Management has managed the careers and profiles of some of Australia's most well-recognised media, entertainment and sporting identities. We work side by side with our clients to proactively seek opportunities and deliver outstanding results. We pride ourselves on the relationships we have built not only with our talent, but also with our clients and media partners.

SF Management is recognised for the personalised attention to detail we give each of our clients. We offer a wide range of services, including product collaborations, brand development and endorsements, content creation, career planning and contract negotiations, crisis communications and media relations, public appearances, event hosting and public speaking.

At SF Management we are hands-on and passionate about our clients, talent, and their careers. We assist our clients with every aspect of their professional lives. SF Management is not just a company, and our clients are not just a business, we are more like one big family that goes above and beyond to deliver the best results possible.
